70 - Pint Quota

Bloodmobile Due To Visit Jan. 19

The Bloodmobile unit from Waco will be in Cameron Friday, January 19, for its regularly scheduled visit. Cameron's quota is 70 pints of blood.

Through the Blood Bank program every resident of Milam County is entitled to receive blood anywhere in the United States and have it replaced by the Red Cross Blood Bank in Waco. Only the cost of handling the transfusion and the necessary paper work must be paid by a patient.

All a patient need do is to inform officials where he is hospitalized and that he is a resident of Milam County and that the county is a participating member of the Central Texas Regional Blood Program. Then he will be able to get all the blood he needs free of charge.

The Blood Bank in Waco is a storage house which holds the blood for residents of Milam and adjoining counties until it is needed. Recently there has been a serious shortage of blood and it is particularly important that Cameron meet its quota at this time.

John B. Henderson Jr., local chairman, stressed that this was a community project and responsibility.

He was contacting all churches and service clubs in the Cameron area and asking them to make every effort to fill the quotas assigned them at the last visit of the Bloodmobile.

"Cooperation has been good and it is expected that the community organizations will once again do their best to see that the quota is met. It takes a continuing effort for the Volunteer Blood Program to be a success," Henderson added.

The Bloodmobile will be stationed at the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church from noon until 6 p. m.

Classes Resume; No Area Wrecks

Cold, cold weather Wednesday closed schools, chilled the marrow of Milam County and brought a low of 14 degrees to the Cameron area.

Planning to reopen Thursday, most Milam and Cen - Tex schools opted to halt classes all day Wednesday as the state - wide blast felled temperatures and made driving slightly hazardous.

Cameron schools reopened Thursday morning as did all other schools.

No accidents were reported in Cameron or Milam County. City streets were slick in places for a time Wednesday.

SCHOOL CLOSED

Schools closed due to anticipated road hazards for school buses were: Cameron, Rockdale, Milano, Burlington, Sharp, Davitt, Maysfield, Branchville and Cause.

District Manager Charles Burke reported that Lone Star Gas Co. had reported a system record distribution of gas during the 12-hour period ending 7 a. m. Wednesday. The Texas - wide cold wave brought lows of zero temperatures in North and Pankardville Texas.

But no particular damage to utility poles and lines was reported by officials of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. or Texas Power & Light Co. in the Milam area.

A few lines were down due to ice, but no major quantities of ice accumulated since it was dry.

STARTED MONDAY

First warnings of the snap came Monday when a low of 31 was recorded at the City weather station.

Then the bottom dropped to a 19 Tuesday and the 14 low Wednesday.

Cars were parked parallel to curbs in downtown Cameron Tuesday as light gusts of snow frosted and froze, making angle parking difficult and unsafe.

The weather was expected to continue cold and bring through Thursday. But winds were expected to die down.

Construction Begins

On 200 - Seat Movie

In Cameron Building

Robert Scott, owner of the 77-Drive - In and the downtown Milam Theatre, which burned in July, has announced construction under way on a 200 - seat theatre in the building adjacent to the Cameron Chamber of Commerce office, 200 Block South Houston.

Scott told The Herald that his theatre would be called the Preston Royal and is scheduled to open February 1. Contractor on the project is Anderle Lumber Co.

He said a special invitation screening will be held for Cameron business and professional men January 31.

Scott said his policy would be to show nothing but family movies from major studios - Warner Brothers, MGM, 20th Century Fox, Disney and others.

Since the downtown Milam burned, Scott has continued to operate the 77 Drive - In Theatre. An insurance suit is pending in Milam District Court between Scott and Commercial Standard Fire & Marine Co. A hearing is scheduled for February 7 to settle the $40,000 insurance claim sought by Scott for fire losses in Milam fire.

Scott said the theatre will have new sound, and visual equipment. Carpeting will be put down and good seats for 200 will be installed. A marquee will be constructed on the front of the remodeled building.

The Preston Royal will operate starting at 5 p. m. on weekdays and at 1 p. m. Saturdays and Sundays, he said.

Mrs. Stanley Hughes has announced the sale of Hughes Supply Co., 202 N. Fanning, to Sam Tindall, Cameron Masonry Contractor. The firms name will be changed to Tindall Supply Company.

Mrs. Hughes will leave Friday for Fort Worth where she has accepted a position as Dormitory director at Texas Christian University.

Incumbents in the major offices to be considered in the May 5 Democratic Primary are: County Judge Don G. Humble, County Clerk Wayne Wieser, County Treasurer, Mrs. Ida Johns, County Supt. H. D. Maxwell, District Clerk Commissioner LaVert McKinney, Grady Allen, Pct. 2, Cameron and Pct. 4 Commissioner Thorndale R. H. McCasland.

McCasland said a second primary would be scheduled June 2 in case of any necessity for a runoff for any office.

Services Held For

Mrs. Von Rosenberg,

Temple Fire Victim

Funeral services were scheduled for 1 p. m. Thursday for Mrs. Emma Von Rosenberg, 84, mother of A. W. Von Rosenberg, Cameron auto dealer.

Mrs. Rosenberg suffered fatal burns Tuesday afternoon at her home in Temple. She died about 2:30 p. m. Tuesday in a Temple hospital after her clothing apparently was ignited by a room heater in her house.

The Rev. F. T. Sager, Rockdale was to officiate at services at Temple Fire Department officials said Mrs. Rosenberg's fire death was the first of the year in the Temple area.

Mrs. A. W. Von Rosenberg, daughter-in-law of the accident victim, said Mrs. Von Rosenberg had been asleep in her room and apparently brushed against the room heater when she got up.

Mrs. Von Rosenberg was a lifelong resident of Milam County until she moved to Temple a few years ago. She was a member of the Lutheran Church.

Survivors are two sons, A. W. Von Rosenberg, Cameron, and Alvin Von Rosenberg of Temple, one sister, Mrs. Hugo Von Rosenberg, of Temple; nine grandchildren and 13 great - grandchildren.

102 Home Building Tops '61 Permits

By FML

The most interesting aspects of the news this week is the weather, a low of 14 officially, and the outbreak of financial statements from city, schools and financial institutions.

Early Wednesday, there was the dread sound of "urr-ur-urrrr" as chilled batteries fell dead - the weight of the Northern that frosted the state of Texas.

Service Stations were dragging cars in, finding room for others that had had "colds" and other wise being active in keeping Cameron an Milam County on its wheels.

102 - 102 - 102

By Tuesday, The Herald had fallen heir to a look something like a Dallas edition of "Wall Street Journal".

City officials are publishing a complete statement of condition on how Cameron money was spent, where it came from, bonded indebtedness and all other fiscal matters last year. It pretty much fills a page and it tells the story of Cameron's development as a small city in the services and facilities it provides.

Then there was a year - end bank call, a school financial statement from Rogers and a statement on Bryan PCA. With that the line-type chattered and probably wished it was an IBM calculator.

All these things are a resume of year - end business for the various institutions. They again assure readers the Cameron area is in good financial health.

102 - 102 - 102

Early filings seem to be the thing this year as several candidates have filed with the Democratic election officials.

A political year, combined with numerous predictions for a banner 1962 in the nation, usually means more than average public interest and activity.

Locally, enthusiasm is being expressed for improved economic conditions and an even more favorable climate for Milam Growth.

Just with current known projects, there is going to be alot more building in the Cameron area.

Kiplinger Forsees

Banner '62 Ahead

1962 will be a good year - possibly a record year - with more jobs, higher pay and increased production, according to Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine. An article in the current issue of the magazine takes a look at the year ahead, and finds the economic picture especially bright.

The editors of the magazine predict that more jobs will be available, with the total number of people working the 70 million range. "But joblessness will still be a serious problem," they note. "Unemployment will average out to about 4 million or a little more. The unemployment rate will drop from about 7 per cent to not much higher than 5 per cent.

"Production will soar - industry will operate at 90 percent of capacity or better, compared with a bit over 80 percent in 1961. That means more of everything, from steel and aluminum to buttons and safety pins, will pour out of the factories.

Screwworm, Brucellosis

Lilly To Explain Control Program

Bob A. Lilly, Legislative Director of the Texas Farm Bureau will be guest speaker for a Milam County Farm Bureau informational meeting on the New Screwworm Program and the Brucellosis Control Program to be held at 7:30 p. m. Thursday, January 18, in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church, Cameron.

V. L. Angell, president of the Milam Farm Bureau, is urging each farmer and rancher in the county to attend this meeting to learn the exact facts of these programs and how they will affect the individual farmer and rancher in his operations.

Angell stressed that Mr. Lilly is well informed on these programs and will be able to give farmers and ranchers of Milam County valuable information concerning them. He added that each of these programs is fast becoming important subject to farmers and ranchers who own a few cattle as well as those with large herds this week.

Total construction for Cameron was $169,107. Fourteen new homes were valued at $73,536 on city building permits.

Largest number of permits was for 19 repairs and alterations to existing buildings. A total of $17,950 was listed in this category.

For schools and churches, two building permits totaling $31,442 were cited. Included was the four-classroom wing on O. J. Thomas School.

New commercial construction included nine permits for $24,150. And additions to homes brought 17 permits totaling $17,725.

Actual 1961 building permits were:

Type	No. Permits	Total Value
New Homes, 14		$78,536
New Commercial, 9		24,150
Repairs, Alterations, 19		17,950
Additions To Homes, 17		17,725
Sec. schs., Churches, 2		31,442

Rockdale reported about the same amount of construction in $186,796 worth of building permits. It fell off from last year's total of $241,006.

But Cameron in 1960 showed building permits at $300,000 not including Cameron Bowling Lanes which is outside the city limits.

ASC's Gilstrap

To Speak Before

Yoe Grid Banquet

Arlington State College Head Coach Claude "Chena" Gilstrap will be the featured speaker at the annual football banquet honoring the Fighting Yoemen Tuesday, January 16, at the Methodist Fellowship Hall.

Gilstrap, one of the outstanding banquet circuit speakers in the Southwest, has sent two teams to the Junior Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., and was recently considered for the head coaching position at Southern Methodist University.

He spoke at this season's Super-Cen - Tex Banquet where Yoe High's Ernest Bayer was honored for the second straight year as one of Central Texas' outstanding football players.

Deadline for the sale of tickets to the banquet is noon, Monday, January 15. Tickets can be obtained from any of the coaching staff or at the superintendent's office. There will be no tickets sold at the door.

Coach Ray Stevens urged all Yoemen fans to attend the banquet "to show their appreciation to the boys who spent several hours of hard, grueling practice every day throughout the fall of 1961 so that Yoe High School and the people of Cameron could have a team that would bring credit to our community."

Former Rockdalian

Named Officer In

Alcoa Organization

John D. Harper, formerly vice president in and smelting division and former works manager of the company's Rockdale Works, has been named vice president in charge of production.

In 1951 Harper was appointed manager of the Rockdale Works where he initiated production of Alcoa's first smelter to be powered by lignite - a solid fuel. Harper became active in a number of civic and professional organizations in Texas. He was a member of the board of directors and of the executive committee of the Texas Good Roads Association, was a director of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, and was a vice president of the Heart O' Texas Council, Boy Scouts of America. He was one of the early presidents of the Texas Chemical Council.

Harper, a native of Louisville, Tenn., was a 1933 electrical engineering graduate of the University of Tennessee. He has been a company career man since he was first employed as a part-time worker at the Alcoa Works in Tenn. during his high school years.

New Coach Hired For Yoeman Staff

School Supt. Charles Zeigler this week announced that the Cameron School Board has employed a new head coach to succeed Bill Bates, who resigned in December.

Supt. Zeigler said the name of the new head coach would be announced Saturday since commitments in the new coach's past job were to be completed before his employment here would be made public.

School board members met in special session Friday night to review final applications, Supt. Zeigler said.

The new coach will assume his duties at the opening of the new semester later this month.

About 50 coaches had applied for the head coaching job in Cameron.

Coaches still on the Cameron staff include Jack Larimore and Ray Stevens.

Zeigler also noted that construction on the four - room addition at O. J. Thomas was well underway. Inclement weather stopped work on the west side school site, but steel framework had been built prior to the freezing weather Tuesday.

Thorndale's Hoppe Seeks 12th Term

E. C. Hoppe filed with the Democratic Committee for the office of Justice of Peace, Thorndale. He will be running for his 12th consecutive term.

Judge Hoppe, who also serves as Thorndale city judge, can recall only one opponent and that was about 8 years ago. A young 80 years old, he is interested in following the law regardless of friendships. "People have gotten mad at me for deciding against them", the Judge related, "but in time they usually come around to make friends again."

Judge Hoppe was born near Bastrop, attended school in Milam County and farmed in Sharp before moving to Thorndale in 1916 where he was employed at the Thorndale State Bank for 8 years. He has also been in the grocery business, and was a salesman for Watkins Products in Thorndale.

The Hoppes 6 children are widely scattered. Edgar is a lawyer with the U. S. Government in Washington D. C., Emil is a Post Office employee in Abilene, Elo is with the draft board in Austin, Leon is a post office inspector in Houston and Max is with the Internal Revenue Service in Austin. Their only daughter, Mrs. Bill Pugh, lives in Austin.

Poage, Johns, 2 JP's

Four More Seek Posts

Congressman W. R. Poage, Milam Treasurer Mrs. Ida Johns and two Milam Justice incumbents have filed for re - nomination in the May Democratic Primary, according to Max McClaren, secretary of the Milam Democratic Committee.

Also filing were incumbent JP's E. C. Hoppe, Precinct 8, Thorndale and Paul Sakewitz, Precinct 6, Buckholts.

First to file last week was incumbent State Rep. Herman Yezak, seeking a 10th term in the Texas House of Representatives.

Congressman Poage filed late last week with McClaren. He is seeking re - election to the 11th Congressional District seat he has held since 1936.

Hoppe seeks his 12th consecutive term in the Thorndale Justice Precinct.

JP's ON BALLOT

All justice seats are up for consideration. The Herald erroneously said last week that constable posts were up for election. But all eight justices will be voted on for four - year terms. Constables were elected in the 1960 vote for four - year terms expiring in 1964.

With the Primary date set for May 5, Milam District, County and Precinct offices up for election are: District Court clerk, County judge, superintendent, treasurer, clerk, and Precinct commissioners 2 and 4, and eight justice posts.

Political observers have not indicated any opposition races developing except in the State Representative's race where Milton

Schiller, Cameron businessman has been frequently mentioned as a possible contender for Yezak's post.

BIGGER DISTRICT

The State Representative's 56th district has been expanded to include Burleson as well as Robertson and Milam Counties.

Incumbents in the major offices to be considered in the May 5 Democratic Primary are: County Judge Don G. Humble, County Clerk Wayne Wieser, County Treasurer, Mrs. Ida Johns, County Supt. H. D. Maxwell, District Clerk Commissioner LaVert McKinney, Grady Allen, Pct. 2, Cameron and Pct. 4 Commissioner Thorndale R. H. McCasland.

McCasland said a second primary would be scheduled June 2 in case of any necessity for a runoff for any office.

Motorists Urged To Get Inspection Seal

Before Deadline

AUSTIN — The Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, Col. Homer Garrison Jr., today urged motorists to secure their 1962 vehicle inspection stickers as soon as possible prior to the April 15 deadline.

After that date, vehicles not displaying the new inspection sticker will be operating in violation of the law and the operators of these vehicles will be subject to arrest, he said.

Garrison said approximately half of the inspection period has expired and only about one-fourth of the vehicles in the state have been inspected. Unless the number of inspections is increased appreciably soon, he added, long waiting lines will be forming at inspection stations as the April 15 deadline approaches.

"There are some 4,800 authorized inspection stations in the state and they are ready and capable of handling the inspection of all vehicles without delay if owners of the uninspected vehicles do not wait until the last few days before the deadline," Garrison said.

SS Benefits May

Be Lost For Some

One out of every three social security disability applicants may lose cash payments for one or more months because he waits more than 12 months before applying for his disability benefits, a recent sample survey showed, according to Dorelle L. Allen, district manager of the Temple Social Security Office.

Under the social security law, Allen points out, a severely disabled worker is eligible for cash benefits at the end of a six-month waiting period, or starting with the 7th month of his disability. Back disability payments may be made for up to 12 months after the worker is eligible for his first check, or 18 months from the time his disability first began.

Taxpayer Service

Available In Temple

Taxpayer service during the 1962 filing period will be available every Monday from 8:15 a. m. to 12 noon, according to A. P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of Internal Revenue Service at Temple.

These hours are specified for the convenience of taxpayers because the small staff of revenue employees at Temple serves a wide area and must be away from the office a major portion of the time.

Andrews added that most taxpayers are able to prepare their returns themselves, if they follow the instructions closely. Others who need assistance may often have their questions answered by telephoning Internal Revenue.

January Set For

Address Report

J. W. Holland of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service stated that the period within which aliens must report their addresses is almost at hand.

The month of January has been set for the address reporting period. All aliens in the United States, with few exceptions, must report their addresses to the Government during that period.

Holland said that forms with which to make the report will be available to all post offices and offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service during the month of January.

He urges all aliens to comply with the reporting requirements as willful failure to do so may lead to serious consequences.

Columnist Dies

In Fort Worth

Boyce House, whose column "I Give You Texas", appears in The Herald regularly, died last week in Fort Worth.

At 64, House was known as Texas' greatest story teller. He came to Texas from Arkansas where his famous story about a frog that lived 23 years in a courthouse cornerstone drew nationwide attention.

His column appeared in many Texas newspapers, The Herald among them. One of the features appears in this edition. He wrote several books during a long newspaper career.

He was found dead of a heart attack in his hotel room in Fort Worth.

Juvenile Delinquency? Not Here!

Seeing these boys at play, one might wonder how all their enthusiasm could be curbed. Actually, it isn't. It is being directed into another channel: a serious study session of spiritual values.....

But they are here because they want to be. Behind their choice is the interest of parents, pastor, boys group sponsors and others dedicated to the great task of character-building.

The program of activity includes the fun of fishing, swimming, ball playing and other forms of wholesome recreation; each a part of church ministry to the spiritual and social needs of the "men of tomorrow".

What could be a greater safeguard against delinquency than the atmosphere of genuinely Christian homes and dynamically spiritual churches?

But many parents are delinquent in the matter of right example for their children. Many have not considered their own spiritual needs and those of their children. Are you among them?

The church does not "wait", but "reaches out" in interest and concern for all members of your family. Isn't it time to respond to its many friendly invitations? You will never regret your response, and your children "will rise up, and call you blessed."

Governor Reports —

Lowest Death Toll In 13 Years

Governor Price Daniel said today that Texas closed the fifth year of its Statewide traffic safety crusade with the lowest number of year-end holiday traffic deaths in the past 13 years.

A total of 77 persons were reported killed in Texas traffic crashes during the ten-day holiday, designated as "Operation Deathwatch 1961" by the Texas Department of Public Safety. The ten days covered the period between 12:01 a. m., Saturday, Dec. 23 and 11:59 p. m., Monday, Jan. 1. The official DPS estimate had anticipated 88 traffic deaths during the period, lowest estimate made for any Christmas - New Year's holiday of any length since 1950.

The Governor was advised by the DPS that when it closed its books on "Operation Deathwatch 1961" at 11 a. m., Tuesday, the holiday death list carried the names of 77 persons, 11 fewer than expected and a reduction of 12½ per cent over the estimate.

"We mourn the loss of the 77 who were killed, but I congratulate the people of Texas, law enforcement officials, news media, outdoor sign companies and all others who helped keep traffic deaths lower than usual," Governor Daniel said.

Highlight of the lifesaving campaign came on Tuesday Dec. 26, when no fatal crash and no traffic death was reported anywhere in Texas. The month of December is noted for its high number of traffic deaths, the DPS reported, and this was only the fourth December since 1946 to record a "Deathless Day" anytime during the month. Never before has there been a "Deathless Day" in Texas traffic during an official year-end holiday period.

Of the 58 fatal collisions, 11 were responsible for a total of 30 deaths. Eight separate crashes took two lives each, another crash took four lives, and two others, one near Hearne and the other near Victoria, each took five lives.

The Victoria area collision between a car and a train occurred barely eight hours before the close of "Operation Deathwatch."

Governor Daniel said there was "No doubt in my mind but that the massive education campaign undertaken so willingly and wholeheartedly by the communications media of the State, the exceptional cooperation between local, county and State law enforcement agencies and the willingness of hundreds of thousands of drivers to drive carefully an legally brought about this unusual and heartening result. I am still sure that most of the people of Texas want to do the right thing in traffic. I feel that this particular campaign and its results are clear evidence of their active participation in a Statewide movement to save lives and reduce injury in traffic."

'Poage Reports'

"Congress convened Wednesday, but our work developed as if it were now mid-session. I drove up early in snow most of the way.

"The new session will in large part be dealing with the same questions which were dealt with last year, but we will be doing it with the help of Speaker Rayburn's guidance. At home we are going to have to continue to work for fuller employment, better business, fair farm prices, and all those things which add up to "prosperity."

With a fair degree of prosperity we will collect enough taxes to balance the budget. Without prosperity, taxes will probably go up and inflation is sure to again reduce our living standards.

"Under no circumstances can we afford to reduce our overall military strength. To do so would, I fear, invite war.

"Of course, there will be the usual efforts to have the Federal Government take over the affairs of the States and localities. For instance, the demand for a Federally supported school system continues. So does the effort to wipe out the State control of unemployment insurance and in effect, have Texas assume the debts of Michigan and Rhode Island. These are all but examples of the determination of some people to run everybody's affairs. This is a most unfortunate characteristic of many Americans.

"I believe that this attitude shows up at its worst in our foreign affairs. Last year I pointed out how we were interfering with the affairs of our good Latin friends who did not have the kind of democracy we enjoy. Now we have given an example of the same thing in the Congo. We have gone so far in our efforts to dabble in other peoples' business that we have actually backed and financed the UN forces in a most brutal attack on Katanga -- not because Katanga had done one single thing to hurt the United States -- no because Katanga had joined the Communists (indeed this is the only part of the Congo which had stood firm against Communists.)

Apparent we were determined to force Katanga to pay for the support of an inefficient and meddling government at Leopoldville just because both areas had once been under Belgium control. There would be just as much logic in forcing Canada to become a part of the United States just because we were once both under British rule.

"I think it is none of our business what government a people has so long as that government deals honestly with us and protects our citizens and their property. I think we better start the New Year by staying out of other peoples' business."

TP&L To Spend $19.5 Millions For Expansion

Texas Power & Light Company will spend $19,500,000 in 1962 for construction of new facilities including the first stage of construction of the new 345,000 volt transmission line to be built by TP&L and three other investor-owned utility companies.

W. W. Lynch, president of TP&L, said a large portion of the 1962 expenditure will be used to complete the TP&L 125,000 kilowatt Valley Steam Electric Station in North Texas. The generating station is due for completion in late 1962.

Lynch added that new 138,000 volt transmission lines will be built in several areas during the year to provide abundant electric power for the needs of TP&L's customers.

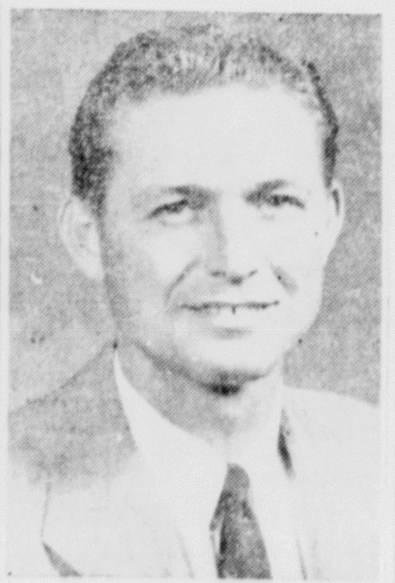

A new 138,000 volt transmission line will be constructed from the Laikin area to Huntington in East Texas and another 138,000 volt line will be built in the Tyler area to provide additional power for the section.

Electric service in the Waco area will also be bolstered with the construction of a 138,000 volt line there. A new substation and transmission line will be constructed in Irving to provide additional power for this fast growing area. TP&L offices in the service area will be remodeled during 1962 and improvements to TP&L distribution system will be made. During 1962, it is anticipated there will be some 10,400 additional customers, which will call for these additions to the distribution system.

The Company spent $21,300,000 in 1961 in its construction of facilities in its 52-county service area. This included work on the new power plant and the construction of new power lines, office buildings and other facilities.

Outdoors In Texas

By Vern Sanford

Morton Burnham is a slight, gray-headed, quiet-spoken gentleman who operates a small machine shop in Marble Falls in the heart of the Highland Lakes area of central Texas. His hobby is inventing.

One day, some 60 years ago, his inquisitive mind came up with an idea that today has opened an entirely new plateau of hunting. As much as anyone knows to the contrary, Burnham was the father of game calling. He was the first person to imitate the sound of a rabbit in distress — to call predators.

It all started quiet innocently back in 1904. Morton Burnham was nine years old at the time. He was going on his first night hunt.

Clamped on his hat was a hunting light which the youth had invented. It was made from a tin can into which he had poured kerosene and inserted a wick. The crude headlamp gave off a faint, flickering glow.

Burnham walked into the night following the teal — moon swath of light. He skirted a field, climbed through a barbed wire fence and walked until the light reflected the glow of eyes. Then Morton Burnham raised his rifle and fired. A fine buck fell.

Night hunting for deer was legal then.

The shot set off a chain reaction which young Morton Burnham didn't immediately comprehend. A jackrabbit feeding in the field was spooked by the noise. It tried to squirm under the barbed wire fence but was caught. It began squealing. Almost instantly a pack of wolves pounced out of the dark timber and devoured the helpless rabbit.

Morton Burnham didn't stick around to find out what happened. He ran for home.

Later, back in the safety of the house, he got to thinking about the incident. Why couldn't a person imitate the sound of a crying rabbit to call wolves? The idea fascinated him.

For three months he practiced and practiced — trying to imitate the sound with his lips. Finally he had it down pat. He could duplicate the cry of the injured rabbit. He did it by sucking wind through compressed lips and regulating the tone with the palm of his hand.

But would it actually work?

He enlisted the help of a boyhood friend. One afternoon they headed for that same spot where the wolves had killed the rabbit. Morton remembered the way the killers had suddenly appeared out of the night. And he remembered what had happened to the helpless rabbit. He didn't want any thing like that to happen to him. That's why this was an afternoon experiment.

The two boys stopped at the same field where Burnham had shot the deer.

In a quirk of luck, they chanced to see a pack of wolves pursuing a doe. The lean and muscular killers caught the deer and began tearing her to pieces.

Morton Burnham grabbed the arm of his friend and pulled him down behind a log. As they lay there, Burnham imitated the cry of an injured rabbit.

A big she wolf raised her head and looked around. Without hesitation, she quit the downed deer and headed for the source of the cries. On her heels came the other wolves, rushing toward the two boys as if hypnotized.

Morton Burnham waited until the big wolf was almost on him before he shot. She fell heavily. The other wolves wheeled and scrambled for safety.

Before the day's hunt was ended the boys shot two more wolves. That was the beginning — the actual birth of game calling. It opened an entirely new sport that reached its climax for him a few years later when he called and killed 105 foxes in only three days of hunting on a ranch near Richland Springs.

Morton Burnham has had his share of thrills in game calling. He recalls most vividly the time when he was calling while crouched in a ravine. On this occasion a fox suddenly leaped over the edge, into the ditch, and clamped his teeth into Burnham's arm.

Another time, while on a hunt, he was calling while seated in the fork of a tree. Little did he know that he too was being hunted. Two bobcats were stalking whatever was making the noise.

When two wildcats are after something in a tree — such as a wild turkey — one cat will climb the tree and knock the game out. The other cat, waiting impatiently on the ground, will immediately pounce upon it.

This is what happened to Morton Burnham. Suddenly he felt something on his back, a clawing bunch of fury. He tumbled earthward, only to be attacked by another hungry bobcat.

That incident sort of soured him on calling at night. And well it might.

Today, Morton Burnham doesn't go "calling" any more. He leaves that to his sons, Murry and Winston.

But he will always be remembered as the father of game calling — the first man to fool nature's sly and wily killers simply by imitating the sound of an injured rabbit.

Hunting Season

Nearly Over Here

AUSTIN — The hunting season has closed in Texas on all the major game species, according to Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

The season is closed now on deer, turkey, all waterfowl and all upland game, with the exception of quail in a number of counties.

Although the quail season is still open in all the general law-counties of Texas, it will close at sunset Jan. 16. This covers approximately half the counties in the state, but none of the counties west of the Pecos.

The season will close Jan. 20 in a number of counties in the North-Central Texas area. It will extend to Jan. 13 in a series of counties in Central East Texas and in South Texas.

Hunters success of upland game has been scattered, according to reports reaching the game department. In some areas, excellent early shooting was reported. Then quail took to the brush and hunter success was more difficult.

Bachelor girls, bachelor boys or Mom and Dad when they are having dinner alone together will find "Pronto Peach Cobbler for Two" just the right dessert to climax the menu.

Even a novice cook can prepare these individual cobbles within five minutes, thanks to the convenience of using cling peach halves straight from the can along with handy biscuit mix. Bake them about 15 minutes and serve with cream for an easy but delicious treat.

If you want a richer topping, stir a teaspoon of melted butter into the dough with the milk. But don't tamper with the base of juicy clings, peach syrup, cinnamon and sugar because nothing else is needed to improve its luscious flavor.

Culture Goes Up, Not Down...

Evident in high places in Washington, on the Supreme Court bench and among many departments of government is a benevolent attitude of debateable essence.

Said a Supreme Court justice in a radio interview, we paraphrase: "We think that people should be more oriented toward the cultural values of life and not have the accumulation of money or material goods their purpose."

He could have said: "This philosophy should be meted out in some measure until people work away from the influence of their environment toward some ethereal, pseudo-cultural plane not now extant."

The same derives from constant decisions coming from Washington, Moscow, London, Paris, Peking and other capitals of sovereign nations.

Political appointees at that level seem to forget the basis for their position: individually acquired education and career development culminating in high government posts.

Grant that solutions to population explosion, global war and famine require international co-operation, possible only at national levels. But the cultural development of individuals and nations does not emanate from the top, but rather reflects reaction and achievement more basic, starting at the grass roots.

Presumably, high level government can orient people away from the rigors of day-by-day, dollar-by-dollar development of people.

But in the history of mankind, there has not been any basic cultural orientation that started from the top of government, whether feudal, dictatorial, ecclesiastic, democratic, republican, monarchic or communist. These systems interpret, share or support culture. But they are not its initiators.

Culture is an expression of man's competition in his environs: art, music, literature, sculpture, ballet, theatre.

For competent federal officials to overlook this, in essence saying government must do what the average man has not done, is to doubt the potential of an individual.

It is rather obvious that heredity and environment work together, not too often in harmony, to determine the individual or his group's motivations and goals. The individual or his group can change their environment and ultimately change their goals... but only after fulfillment of a competitive desire. If we accede to a philosophy of culture sifting downward, we shall wait while the roof collapses before culture arrives.

If memory serves us, the strength of the Italian Renaissance came with Italian City States' success in trade and enlightened patronage for the talented by "merchant princes." We would not turn back the clock for individual or Court patronage for artists and musicians, nor expect the Church to refund the meaning of Gothic architecture and great organ music of the post-Renaissance years.

If anything, culture is an escape from the world around us, an expression of its finer attributes. Culture, refinement and art seek to progress to truth. And truth is only what we are.

Government itself, perhaps more aptly, politics, is an art. It is an art of action... co-ordinating, assimilating, justifying, rectifying and balancing. But it is difficult to anticipate its success in mass culture.

Russia has done her best to "statize" her culture, her talent and their productivity. It leads only to expression of disillusionment in the novel, "Dr. Zhivago", and escape from tyranny of the mind by such as the Russian scientist who chose political asylum in Canada.

Government in final analysis is concerned with the material. So are business, labor, agriculture and other divisions of society. But culture, in our opinion, rises from broad competition of men among men aspiring to build out of experience an ivory tower, which is subject to improvement or decay of succeeding generations.

Some government officials become too bored with their roles, hold hopes for solving ills too basic for their reach and arrive at a philosophy, most foreign to nature, that says: "Let us take you away from all this."

LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Not Surprised That Scientists

Can't Detect Life On Other Planets

Dear editor:

It's amazing sometimes to find out what scientists are up to.

For example, the other day I read that a group of scientists for several months now have been spending their time listening for radio signals from other planets, on the assumption there is life out there somewhere and if so maybe those people have discovered radio.

The result of the listening was bleak, the scientists reporting: "We listened for but did not find intelligent radio signals from other worlds."

It's not for me to be advising scientists, but I'd like to say they shouldn't give up.

Look at it this way: say there are similar scientists on some planet far out into space and right now they've hit on the same idea, trying to find out if there is life on some other planet too. All right. They've got their radios turned in, they're switching back and forth on the dial, and suddenly they pick up a broadcast from this Earth.

Can you be sure it'd sound intelligent? What makes you think they wouldn't turn off their sets and report: "We listened for but did not find intelligent radio signals from other worlds?"

What if they tuned in during the last ten seconds of a professional football game? During a political campaign? What if they picked up one of Khrushchev's six hour speeches? Or one of Castro's ten-hour jobs? Or a guitar player performing commercial? Or right in the middle of an all-out war?

Man sometimes gets a little conceited about his accomplishments, but it's entirely possible, if there is life on other far distant planets, that those folks have already found out about us and are keeping it quiet, have pulled down their broadcasting towers, outlawed radio, and are trying to keep away from us just as long as possible. It's something to think about.

On the otherhand, they may be in worse shape than we are and maybe we're the ones who ought to be keeping quiet. Sometimes people are alot better off than they realize.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

COTTON REPORT

Middling 1" cotton prices were steady during the holiday season in most of the Spot Markets, quoted Thursday, January 4, at 33.15 cents in Dallas and 33.25 cents in Galveston and Houston, unchanged from two weeks ago.

Most of the market activity was centered in the late producing markets. Trading in the country markets has fairly active. Producers offered freely at prices above loan levels. Many producers, however, were holding current ginnings until the bulk of their crop was harvested. Interest in the loan remained generally light. During the period December 22 - 29 loan entries in Texas totaled 49,747 bales. Repayments during the same period were 27,724 in Texas. Shipper demand was mainly for current requirements. Buying for stock purposes was becoming more selective as character of ginnings declined. Early dated ginnings of Strict Low Middling and lower micronaire were in fairly good demand. Prices for these qualities were generally steady.

Domestic mill inquiries were not numerous. Regular customers were the most active buyers, covering a wide range of qualities.

Domestic mill inquiries were not numerous. Regular customers were the most active buyers, covering a wide range of qualities from Strict Middling to the lower grades in staples 1/8" through 1". Purchases were barely moderate in volume for deliveries extending up into mid-spring. Inquiries from foreign sources remained slow and buying was small to barely moderate in volume. Interest from Japan was slightly stronger.

Clear skies and moderate temperatures prevailed during the past two weeks. Harvesting the remainder of this season's crop was moving at a fast pace with mechanical harvesters fast clearing the fields. Gins in the late producing sections were running around the clock with a gin yard full of waiting trailers. Another two weeks of open weather should see most of the crop out of the fields. There was still some cotton to be harvested in North Texas. Producers in the South Texas sections were making preparations for a new crop.

Special Session Sets Fast Pace

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Talk of ending the special session of the Legislature on its opening day turned out to be just talk.

When the lawmakers got to town at Gov. Price Daniel's call, little support could be mustered by Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas and Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger, for immediate adjournment.

So the show is on -- and already moving at a fast pace. Governor Daniel immediately laid out his proposals for solving some long-standing problems. Included were the following:

BANK ESCHEAT: Here a compromise with bankers was sought, under which banks would advertise locally each year for the owners of accounts which had as much as $25 in them and which had been inactive for seven years. Balances under $25 would be sent to the State Treasury which would seek the owners, and if they appear, pay them from a $100,000 revolving fund which would be kept in the Treasury for that purpose. Rep. Charles E. Hughes of Sherman, who has worked for 10 years to get laws to enforce the escheat laws, felt that ground had finally been found on which the state and the banks could agree.

RURAL ROADS: Governor Daniel's veto last summer of the $15,000,000 appropriation for farm-to-market road construction during the year starting next Sept. was designed to bring another long discussion to a head. It did.

Where $60,000,000 was available in 1961 ($50,000,000 in state taxes and $10,000,000 in federal aid) for construction and improvement of rural roads, Daniel proposed that only about $42,500,000 be used next year. The other $17,500,000 would be used to maintain the rural roads.

Daniel got agreement from the Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association and from the Texas Farm Bureau. But some rural legislators think this is too big a cut all at once, and are talking about the Daniel proposal as the "minimum."

INTEREST RATES: Daniel made no specific recommendation to the lawmakers on interest rates and that the rates proposed by the Texas Legislative Council were too high.

Here there is tremendous difference of opinion among legislators, over two issues.

First question is - "what is a small loan?"

Some think interest ceilings should be held to 10 per cent on all loans over $500 while others think higher rates should be allowed up to $3,000 to include the auto loan category.

Latest proposal would regulate rates up to $1,500 or $1,000 thus hold interest to a 10 per cent maximum on all loans over that amount.

This issue will be hard fought and many legislators do not expect it to be settled when the 30-day session is over.

TOURIST ADVERTISING: Daniel urged a $300,000 appropriation for advertising Texas to tourists. Proposal is backed by numerous organizations who feel that the investment will pay big dividends to the state, especially since the state now has a sales tax.

JUVENILE PAROLE: Last year the start was made on a system of state-paid parole officers to supervise boys and girls released from the juvenile schools. But money was provided to pay only six men, including a state director. Daniel asked for 17 more parole officers. Most legislators agreed on the need but worried about where to get the money.

One thing is certain -- this Legislature won't raise taxes again -- not this year.

It is an unusual Legislature in another respect. It has two Republican members.

Kenneth Kohler of Amarillo took office first, so he is being called the "minority leader" of the House. His GOP colleague from Texas City, George Korkmas, makes it the largest Republican membership in the Legislature since back in the 1870s, when there were many Republicans in office in Texas, including a governor.

CANDIDATES ACTIVE
Politics is perkin' up. Former House Speaker Waggoner Carr is at the rail and ready to run for Attorney General. Actually the Lubbock attorney, a Democrat, has been quietly campaigning for the office for several months.

Austin Attorney Walter Koch is an announced candidate for Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, Third Judicial District.

Judge William A. Morrison of Cameron has announced for reelection to the Court of Criminal Appeals, on which he has served for 11 years. District Judge Otis Dunagan of Tyler has announced against him.

CLARK HEADS BOARD
Texas has an industry-seeking agency -- the Texas Industrial Commission.

It got a new director in Harry W. Clark, who has been head of industrial development for the Texas & Pacific Railway Co. He replaces Walter Dickerson.

Milam ASCS

Report By Milam County ASCS

Pre-measurement services in connection with cotton acreages are available to all farm operators who request the service again this year, starting January 11.

Farm operators who desire this service may file a request by signing the application register at the county office and paying the established charges on or before February 28, set as the closing date for accepting requests.

Charges for this service will be based on the acreage to be pre-measured and the number of plots involved.

We still do not have anything to tell you about the 1962 Feed Grain Program except that it will be similar to last year's program and that the sign-up period will begin February 5 and end March 30.

One important aspect of the program that feed grain farmers must keep in mind is that care must be taken not to harvest a crop off of any acreage which the feed grain program participant intends to designate as diverted acreage for the 1962 program.

Grazing, however, is permitted until May 1. If anything has been harvested off of the acreage such as grain, hay or anything whatsoever in 1962, the acreage will automatically become ineligible for 1962 diverted feed grain acreage.

Farmers with conservation reserve, or soil bank, contracts expiring this year are again reminded that they may receive cost-share assistance for maintenance of the cover, if necessary, if they desire to continue to keep it out of production up to a period equal to the term of the contract and during this period will continue to retain allotment history for use in future years.

County Agents Notes

Beef Production Holds No. 1 Place

By J. D. Moore
Milam County Agent

Livestock situation continues good. Unusual progress has been made in range grass and water development due to favorable rainfall. Beef cattle production is the number one enterprise in Milam County and should become stronger in 1962. There is room for improvement in the economics of cattle production.

POULTRY production in Milam County leads all other agricultural enterprises in the application of technical knowledge. Those in charge of poultry in Milam County know what to do and are "doing it" so far as poultry is concerned.

Producers are either "in" or "out" in the poultry business. The graded egg marketing program continues to work through its ninth year, adding three quarters of a million dollars to the progressive poultry producers as added revenue through egg sales. The grading of eggs has done much to develop a better product on the market for consumers. Our poultry production reflects skilled management and continues to grow.

4-H Club Notes

Egg Production To

Increase For '62

With Prices Steady

COLLEGE STATION — Egg production in 1962 is expected to slightly exceed the 1961 production because the rate of lay per bird is likely to average higher. This is largely because there will be a higher percentage of pullets in 1962 says F. Z. Beanblossom, extension poultry marketing specialist.

In 1961, August and September hatchings were up 26 and 32 percent, respectively, from 1960, and eggs in incubators on October 1, 1961 were up 48 percent. These increases represent from 8 to 9 million extra pullets, the specialist explains.

Despite the prospective larger supplies of eggs, the price of eggs in the next few months is not likely to drop abruptly. The sustaining factor may be the demand for eggs for breaking. Present stocks of frozen eggs are low — on October 1, 1961 they were 29 percent below a year ago. This is likely to induce more commercial breaking in the next few months than occurred in the same months a year ago, says Beanblossom.

Price structures for eggs in 1962 are likely to be influenced primarily from within the poultry industry or from industry-related sources. No sudden changes in demand are expected, thus the big influences upon 1962 price changes will have to come from the area of supply.

Severe winter conditions might interrupt marketing and make temporary changes in price.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture announced on December 23 that there will be no restrictions for the second consecutive year on acreage of 1962 sugar beet acreage.

Milam Leaders Aid In Blackland Plan

Several agriculture, government and Texas Power & Light Company officials from Milam County are meeting in Waco Thursday with similar representatives from 12 other Central Texas counties to initiate the Blackland Cash Income Program to assist farmers in boosting their income.

Chamber of Commerce officials, Farmers Home Administration officials, vocational agriculture representatives, Soil Conservation Services personnel and TP&L Managers and members of the TP&L Agricultural development division will be among the 70 persons who attend from Bell, Bosque, Coryell, Ellis, Falls, Hamilton, Hill, Johnson, Milam, Navarro, Limestone, Williamson and McLennan Counties.

The Blackland Improvement Program was organized in early 1961 and a Blackland Statistical Committee has been named to help put the program in operation. Its members are Eugene Butler, president and editor of The Progressive Farmer, chairman; and C. B. Spencer, agriculture director of the Texas Cotton Seed Crushers Association and Homer Gibbs, director of agricultural development for TP&L.

Officials of the group said the program was initiated when it was noted that annual income of farmers in the Blackland area was declining each year.

They added that through the program it is felt a way has been devised to assist the farmers in measuring their income and then improving their position through the use of a written guide that will instruct them in better farming practices.

The program will be explained at the meeting and those present will return home and plan a statistical survey of 100 farmers in each county. Such information as acreage harvested, yield per acre and total production will be sought from the farmers. Another survey will be made in early 1963 to determine the improvements made during the year.

A similar meeting will be held this week in McKinney with representatives from 12 North Texas counties.

GRAIN SORGHUM

Though Texas grain sorghum producers set an all time high of 45 bushels or 2,520 pounds an acre in 1961, they still have a long way to go to match the 9,383.9 pounds an acre produced by Bill Cole, a Deaf Smith County 4-H boy. His yield made with irrigation topped all participants in the 1961 Texas Hybrid Grain Sorghum Production Program. He planted RS 610.

LEADERSHIP LABORATORY

The 1962 edition of the Longhorn Recreation and Leadership Laboratory will be held February 18-24 at the Glen Lake Camp, Glen Rose, Texas. Local county extension agents can supply details. Early registrations are urged.

Muecks Place In 4-H Hybrid Corn Program, Area 5

Four Milam County 4-H Club members placed second through fifth in the 1961 Texas Hybrid Corn Program, Area 5, irrigated division.

Leon Teinhart, Fayette County, lead the division with a yield of 171.5 bushels. He was followed by the four Milam Countians, Joe, Judith, Jane and Martin Mueck, Route 1, Cameron, with yields of 119.9, 117.3, 114 and 108.9 bushels an acre.

The top irrigation yield was area, which included Central, East, Northeast and South Central counties, planted Texas 30 and Romberg 126 was planted by the other two winners.

Byron Barkman of Texarkana topped all competitors in the Program and set a new record for dryland yields. Barkman produced 224 bushels an acre without irrigation. He planted Tx 30 on April 10 in 40 - inch rows and with a 12 inch plant spacing in the row. He applied 92-60-30 fertilizer before planting and followed with a side dressing of 57-0-0 per acre.

The top irrigation yield was made by Charles Mason of Hale County. His yield of 200.4 bushels an acre produced from Texas 28. He planted in 40 - inch rows with a 10 to 12 - inch plant spacing in the row, used no fertilizer before planting irrigated three times during the growing season and used an application of 57-0-0 fertilizer as a side dressing. His corn was planted on April 15.

January 15 Is Deadline For Farm Tax Return

Farmers and ranchers were reminded today that Monday, January 15, is the last day for filing their estimated federal income tax return for 1961, unless they plan filing their final return on or before February 15.

A. P. Andrews, Administrative Officer of Internal Revenue Service in Temple, explained that those farmers and ranchers who file an estimated return on January 15 and pay the tax due thereon have until April 16 to file their final return and pay any balance of tax due. Otherwise, the law requires that they file their final return and pay the full amount of the tax due by February 15.

The IRS representative cautioned that this option is available to farmers and ranchers only. Tax law defines a farmer or rancher as one who earns two-thirds or more of his gross income from farming or ranching. He advised farmers and ranchers that if they filed a federal income tax return this year the necessary forms for this year will be mailed to them. For those who did not file, or for some other reason did not receive their forms in the mail, blank forms are available from any Internal Revenue office or from post offices or banks.

Everyone who had a gross income (not net) of $600 or more during 1961 must file an income tax return with their IRS District Director, whether or not any tax is owed.
